

JOHN CALIPARI

Thank you for joining CoachCal.com as a "Charter" member. You are in on the ground floor of a web-based community that we think will be the most unique experience of which any college basketball fan have ever been a part."

Even though the site bears my name, it's really and truly YOUR site. I want CoachCal.com to be your unobstructed view into Kentucky basketball. To do that, we are going to provide you with fresh, daily content you can't find anywhere else. I will be blogging - along with site's editor, David Scott - at "Coach's Blog" and I will also offer the "Daily Cal," where I can stretch my legs a bit and share some of the things that are getting my attention for that particular day.

The Daily will be made up of website links, tweets, pictures, music tips, movie reviews, TV suggestions, sports commentary, political commentary - just about anything. I hope it will let you know a little bit more about my personality and also help to emphasize there's more to life than just the orange ball! (No, really, there is!)

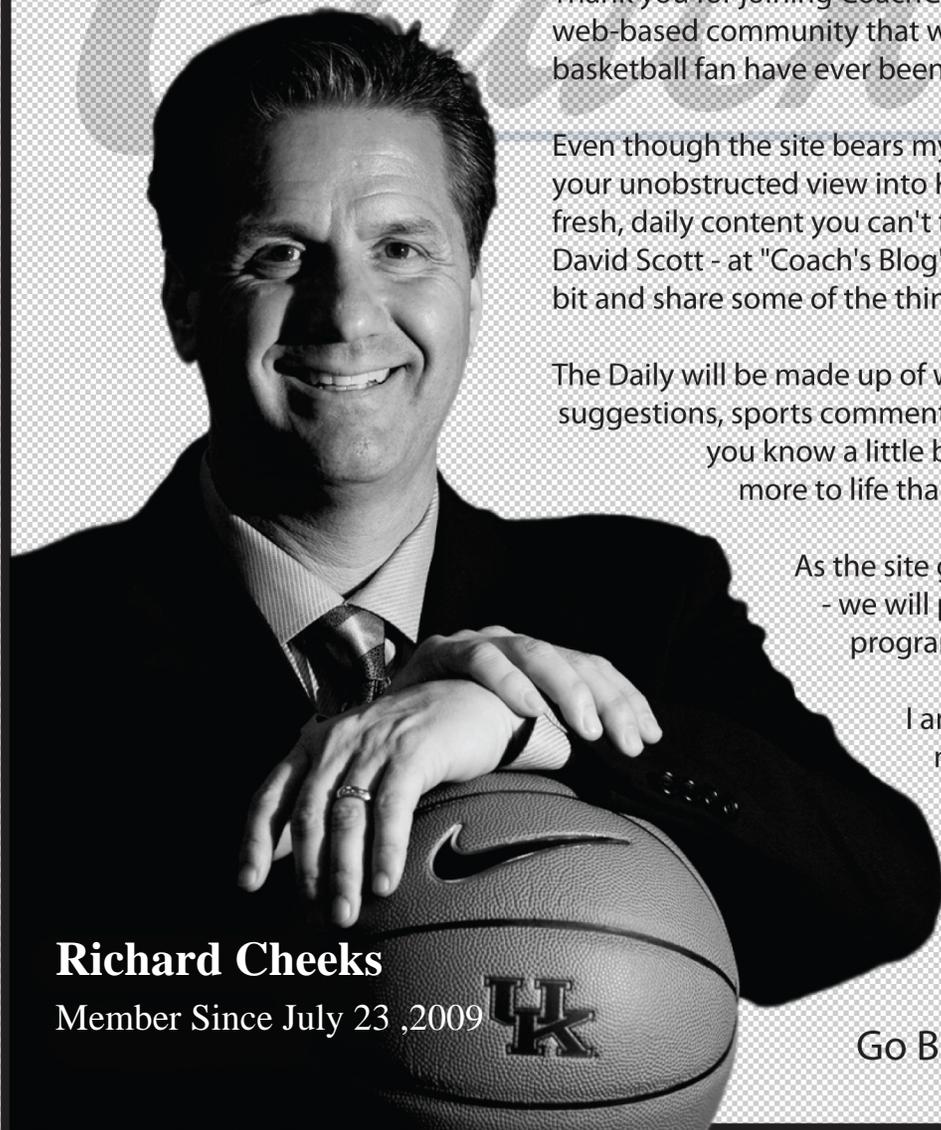

As the site grows and evolves - with input from you at coach@coachcal.com - we will provide you with unprecedented access to the Commonwealth's program.

I am so excited to get started and thrilled you have become a member of Team Calipari. I can't wait for the games to begin!

But until then, make yourself familiar with our site and enjoy all it encompasses.
